TOURS for 2013

May 4-12th

Discover Hopi: Ancient and Traditional tribal ways

A rare invitation to travel with unprecedented access to the secluded Hopi Mesas; stark, beautiful and enduring, where the traditional clan lifeway remains vibrant. Second Mesa is your base as you spend time on the Mesas and in the villages, accompanied by Hopi interpreters, learning about their cultures and history through traditional and evolutionary arts and through Hopi cultural perspectives and philosophies.

Prices range from $1735 to $2695 per person

June 1-8th

Discover Lakota: Paha Sapa to Wounded Knee

Enter the sacred circle on this expansive journey into Lakota culture. Traverse the wide open prairie and the sacred Black Hills of the Lakota Nation, the landscape of the dreamers and the dreams. Follow the history of the Lakota people through great leaders such as Sitting Bull, Red Cloud, and Crazy Horse, and take the road toward understanding of the historic and contemporary realities of the Tetonwan Oyate.

Prices range from $1895 to $2795 per person

June 15- 23rd

Discover Wind River: Mountains, Plains and Canyons of the Wind River People.

Visit the home of the Cheyenne Arapahoe and Shoshone peoples. Wind River Reservation stretches two million acres across the high-plains and disappears into cloud-covered mountains at the Continental Divide, and on this special journey you will experience the beauty of traditional cultures, lands, history, wildlife, and POWWOW!

Prices range from $1895 to 2895 per person

July 18- Aug 4

Discover Native Alaska: Tribal ways from the Tundra to the Glaciers

From blanket-tossing at the Eskimo Indian Olympics, to understanding the significance of the wolf and bear to Native Peoples around Denali National Park, or flight-seeing at Mount McKinley and experiencing the Inside Passage of Alaska, it's the final frontier of the American West; a majestic land known for stunning glaciers, rugged landscapes, and sweeping colorful valleys. Plus Alaska is also home to eleven distinct Alaska Native cultures many of whom still live the old subsistence lifeway and speak one of twenty indigenous languages. You can even include a cruise, so don't miss this once in a lifetime opportunity.

Prices start at $4295. Please enquire - prices are dependent on when you and for how many people you book.

Please note, for 2013 we are introducing new pricing structures and tour members will have options for single rooms with no single supplement, to room-share at reduced cost, to arrange their own accommodations or even to camp on select trips

Add-on experiences may be available if you wish to extend your time in the West.

Please enquire about options for your chosen journey.

MORE TOURS 2013

Aug 12-24th Discover Indian Country: Yellowstone to the Black Hills

Join us for Native American adventures through culture, history, music, art and wildlife across America's Serengeti to Paha Sapa - the Sacred Black Hills. Listen for wolves, look for bears, be immersed in indigenous stories & explanations, and find the map of the summer's ceremonial journey. In finding the beauty of the indigenous phenomenon, you will visit reservations, hear the Native flute and maybe even learn to speak some Lakota.

Plus, this intertribal journey visits the Tipi Capital of the World where the biggest, most exciting powwow competition on the Northern Plains rages deep into the night.

Prices range from $2395 to $3895

Sept 14-21st Discover Tashunke Witco: The Life of an Uncommon Man

In the outstanding beauty of the Bighorn Mountains, experience the tranquil energy of places special to Crazy Horse, the legendary Lakota. Visit the areas he would go to renew his spirit and to strengthen his Lakota virtues of fortitude, bravery, truthfulness and generosity, and at these places learn of some of the greatest triumphs and tragedies of his life, both on a personal level and through his military achievements. Crazy Horse was a Thunder Dreamer, and those who have dreamed of Wakinyan ride the whirlwind -- thus his life cannot be encapsulated in books;

Come with us - Enter the Circle and relate to the humanity of a man who remains a People's dream.

Prices range from $1495 - $2395
